Secretary's Report: One correction to the April Minutes.

Treasurer's Report: Two sponsors from 2004 have still not paid.

Solo2: The option of pre-paying for all events and claiming a season number was discussed and approved. Event awards (glasses) are in. Banners will be provided to all sponsors ($23 each). The "conduct" of some drivers at events was discussed. It was also noted that delays at Registration are due to our being very helpful to new drivers.

Newsletter: Will now include birthdays of members and an updated list of executives.

Membership: The Region has 90 members. We also have all forms for minors, etc.

Merchandising: We will sell off the old shirts at cost: $7.50. New hats and shirts are being ordered and will be sold at events and listed on the website.

Old Business: Safety Steward School: insufficient interest in running a second school. Mall Show: Josh and Gary had there cars at Nittany Mall on April 23rd and 24th. Lettering on timing vehicle: done. Fund Raising: books of 10 tickets for Triangle Car Wash still available from Gary; recall that the club keeps 50% of the gross. Airport Work Days: to be scheduled, but are worth participation points.

New Business: Site Fees: discussed; minimum is $200 for a regular event, $300 for a two-day events, and $500 for a runway event.

2005 Projects: Alternative point systems still under consideration for Fall and/or 2006.

Adjournment: Jim, seconded by Paul.
